

Possible Woman Foundation International Announces New Officers

Atlanta (January 2010) – The Possible Woman Foundation International (PWFI) has announced a new slate of officers for 2010. Kathy Leggett Eldridge is the new Chair of the nonprofit group's board and Karen Lightfoot is the new Treasurer.

The group's Executive Committee includes:

- Sarah O'Brien, Board Development Chair
- Denise Poole, Events Committee Chair
- Laura Balsler, Fundraising Committee Chair
- Laura Snyder, Marketing Committee Chair
- Denise Billups, Scholarship Committee Co-Chair
- Helene Lollis, Scholarship Committee Co-Chair

PWFI awards academic scholarships to women in need, giving them a second chance at higher education, a better life and the chance to pursue their dreams. An event honoring this year's scholarship recipients will be held in Atlanta on Monday, April 19.

The nonprofit group has provided more than $125,000 in scholarships since 2001, giving women the opportunity to return to the workforce and advance professionally. One hundred percent of PWFI's operating expenses are paid by the contributions made by its board members; outside donations go directly to scholarships and minimal related expenses.

The Possible Woman Foundation International and Wind Enterprises, which conducts the Possible Woman Leadership Conferences, are separate entities. PWFI is a 501(c) 3 non-profit organization.
